of the Cooperative.

Special Meetings

Section 2. Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by at least six (6) directors or upon a written request signed by at least twenty (20) per centum of all members and it shall thereupon be the duty of the Secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Whenever any notice is required to be given by the provisions of any statute, or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws of the Cooperative, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before, at or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to such notice.

At all meetings of the members at which a quorum is present, all questions, other than the election of directors, shall be decided by a vote of a majority of the members voting thereon in person and, where authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors, by mail and/or electronically, except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, or these By-Laws. If two or more persons hold a joint membership, they shall jointly be entitled to one (1) vote and no more upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members. For elections of directors, the candidate receiving the most votes shall be elected.

A member shall be entitled to vote for the election of directors either at a meeting held for such purpose or by mail. Voting electronically in a director election shall be allowed if the Board of Directors has authorized electronic voting pursuant to these Bylaws. In addition, voting by mail and/or electronically may be authorized on any other matter by resolution of the Board of Directors adopted prior to the members' meeting. Provided, however, that all voting by mail must be in writing on ballots provided by the association and the return envelope containing the ballot must be signed by the member voting.

Voting by members other than members who are natural persons shall be allowed upon presentation to the Cooperative, prior to, or upon registration at, each member meeting, of satisfactory evidence entitling the person presenting the same to vote.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, whenever a member is absent from a meeting of the members but whose spouse attends such meeting, such spouse shall be deemed to hold, and may exercise the right to vote, to the same extent that such member could vote if present in person.

Cumulative voting and voting by proxy shall be prohibited at all meetings of the members.

Credentials and Election Committee

Section 6. The Board of Directors shall, at the annual meeting of members, appoint a Credentials and Election Committee consisting of an uneven number of members, not less than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15) who are not directors or candidates for the office of director, or members of the same household of or close relative of any director or candidate. In appointing the Committee, the Board shall have regard for equitable representation of the several areas served by the Cooperative. It shall be the responsibility of the Committee to pass upon all questions that might arise with respect to the registration of members and to rule upon the effect of any ballots irregularly marked. The Committee's decision on all such matters shall be final.

Order of Business

Section 7. The order of business at the annual meeting of the members, and so far as possible at all other meetings of the members, shall be essentially as follows:

1. Call of the roll.
2. Reading of the notice of the meeting and proof of the due publication or mailing thereof, or the waiver or waivers of notice of the meeting, as the case may be.
3. Reading of unapproved minutes of previous meeting of the members and the taking of necessary action thereon.

Rules for Meetings

Section 8. At all meetings of the members, of the Board of Directors, and of any committees thereof, the meeting procedure, except as provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these By-Laws, shall be governed by the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

Except as hereinafter provided, no motion to adopt a resolution, recommendation or similar action shall be considered by the membership at any meeting of the members, except those related to procedural matters. The presiding official shall be the sole judge of whether the motion is procedural.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, any motion to adopt a resolution, recommendation or similar action, whether procedural or not, shall be considered by the membership at the annual meeting of the members if it has been set forth in full in the Agenda for the meeting.

Any resolution, recommendation or similar action shall be included in the Agenda for consideration by the members at the annual meeting of the members if it is presented to the Board of Directors on or before January 15 of the year in which the member desires the action to be considered. If January 15 shall be a legal holiday or Saturday or Sunday, the deadline shall be the next business day.

Fixing Record Date

Section 9. For the purpose of determining members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of members, or in order to make a determination of member for any other purpose, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for such determination. Such date, in any case, shall not be more than thirty (30) days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of members, is to be taken.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

General Powers

Section 1. The business and affairs of the Cooperative shall be managed by a board of eleven (11) directors which shall exercise all of the powers of the Cooperative except such as are by law or by the Articles of Incorporation of the Cooperative or by these By-Laws conferred upon or reserved to the members.

Director Districts

Section 2. Directors shall be elected from director districts and the following shall constitute the four (4) director districts comprising the area served by the Cooperative, to-wit:

District 1 shall consist of the counties of Logan, Washington, Weld and Morgan Counties, all in the State of Colorado.

District 2 shall consist of Phillips and Yuma Counties, all in the State of Colorado.

District 3 shall consist of Sedgwick County in Colorado, and Deuel County in Nebraska.

District 4 shall consist of the balance of the State of Nebraska wherein consumers or members shall reside and receive service.

There shall be elected to the Board of Directors four (4) directors from District 1; three (3) directors from District 2; two (2) directors from District 3; and two (2) directors from District 4.

At the next ensuing annual meeting at which election of directors shall be had, the nomination and balloting shall be accomplished in such a manner as to give effect to this Section and to Section 2 hereof. Thereafter when a director's term expires, a new director shall be elected from the same district. Vacancies in any director district shall be filled by election as provided in these By-Laws or by appointment as provided in Section 4 hereof.

Qualification and Tenure

Section 3. At the first annual meeting on or before the first Monday of April, 1954, at which there is a quorum present for the election of directors, the eleven directors shall be elected by a secret ballot by the members present in person or by proxy. At the organization meeting of the Board of Directors to be held after the annual meeting at which directors are elected as aforesaid the eleven directors shall by ballot select four (4) of their number who shall be directors for three (3) years; four (4) who shall be directors for two (2) years; and three (3) who shall be directors for one (1) year. At each annual meeting held thereafter the number of directors shall be elected as the number of vacancies which shall exist by reason of the expiration of terms of office. The term of office of directors elected thereafter shall be three (3) years. Nothing herein shall affect the right of directors to continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified, subject to the provisions of these By-Laws with respect to the removal of directors. Each member shall have the right to cast one (1) vote for each director to be elected at such election and the number of candidates equal to the number of directors to be elected receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for the term hereinbefore specified. Voice vote will be permitted if there is no competition for the office to be filled, otherwise written ballots will be used for election purposes. If authorized by the Board of Directors, electronic voting is also allowed.

No member shall be eligible to become or remain a director who; is not a member of the Cooperative; is employed by or financially interested in a competing enterprise; is a close relative of an incumbent director, or of an employee of the Cooperative; is an employee of the Cooperative or was an employee of the Cooperative during the three (3) years preceding the date of election or appointment to the Board; is an employee of Western United Electric Supply Corporation, or other electric supply company in which Cooperative is a member, Colorado Rural Electric Association, or Tri-State Generation & Transmission Association, Inc., or other generation and/or transmission company providing or seeking to provide generation or transmission services to Cooperative, or was an employee of such an entity during the three (3) years preceding the date of election or appointment to the Board; does not reside in the director district he or she is to represent, except notwithstanding that he or she is not receiving service from the Cooperative at his or her primary residential abode, he or she (1) is in substantial permanent occupancy, direction or use of premises served by the Cooperative, and (2) is a permanent and year-round resident within or in close proximity to an area served by the Cooperative. When a membership is held jointly by two or more persons, only one joint member may be elected director. The operating or chief executive of any member which is not a natural person, such as a corporation, church, etc., or its designee, shall be eligible to become a director provided he or she meets the above qualifications. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect in any manner whatsoever the validity of any action taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, unless such action is taken with respect to a matter in which one or more directors voting thereon have an interest adverse to that of the Cooperative.

No Director is qualified who does not attend a minimum of nine monthly meetings of the Board of Directors in any twelve-month period, unless the failure to attend such meetings is due to the Director's serious, but non-chronic illness, or authorized participation in activities related to his or her office, such as attendance at meetings of the Tri-State G&T, CREA, or Western United Electric Supply Boards of Directors.

In the event it is brought to the attention to the Board of Directors that a Director may have failed to meet any one or more of the foregoing qualifications, a Resolution may be adopted by the Board of Directors calling for a hearing at which the Board may consider the questions whether such Director remains qualified to serve in accordance with this By-Law. Such hearing shall be held on not less than thirty days' advance notice to the affected Director of the time, place, and reason for the hearing. The affected Director has the right to be present at all stages of such hearing, and to question witnesses and present evidence in his or her favor. The hearing shall be conducted informally, in accordance with such rules as may be adopted by the President of the Board. Failure of the affected Director to attend the hearing shall be deemed a waiver of his or her right to a hearing on the question. If, by a three-fifths majority, the Board of Directors determines, after hearing, that the Director is no longer qualified, the Board may thereupon declare a vacancy, and may fill the unexpired term of the Director in accordance with Article III, Section 5 of these By-Laws.

Nothing in this By-Law shall be deemed to authorize removal of a Director by the Board of Directors for reasons other than failure of the Director to satisfy the qualifications of this By-Law.

Nominations

Section 4. Members may be nominated to serve on the Board of Directors of the Association provided they possess the qualifications set forth in these By-Laws, in the following manner: Any fifteen (15) or more members acting together, may make nominations by petition filed with the Secretary of the Association not less than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting of members. Those members signing such a petition must be residents of the district in which the vacancy for the office or director occurs. The Secretary shall cause to be posted the petitions when received at the principal office of the Cooperative. The Secretary shall mail with the notice of the meeting a statement of the number of directors to be elected and showing the names and addresses of members nominated and their director district. Additional nominations may not be made at the meeting of members except that the members may, at any meeting at which a director or directors shall be removed, elect a successor or successors thereto without compliance with the foregoing provisions with respect to nominations. Notwithstanding anything in this section contained, failure to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall not affect in any manner the validity of any official action hereafter taken by the Board of Directors.

Vacancies

Section 5. Subject to the provisions of these By-Laws with respect to the removal of directors, vacancies occurring on the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors and directors thus elected shall serve the unexpired portion of the term of office of their predecessors or until their successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified. If vacancies occur by reason of the expiration of the term of office of any director then the vacancies shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, provided the vacancies have not been filled by an election of directors by the members, and the term of such directors shall be three years from the date of the last annual meeting.

Compensation

Section 6. Directors as such shall not receive any salary for their services, but by resolution of the Board of Directors the board may provide a fair remuneration (which may include insurance benefits) for time actually spent in the service of the Cooperative, a reasonable mileage allowance, and reimbursement for actual out-of-pocket expenses made by a director for attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors and at such other meetings as the Board of Directors shall consider it to be in the best interest of the Cooperative to have its directors, or any of them, attend. Except in emergencies no close relative of a director shall receive compensation for serving the Cooperative, unless such compensation shall specifically be authorized by a vote of the Board of Directors.

Rules and Regulations

Section 7. The Board of Directors shall have power to make and adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Cooperative or these By-Laws, as it may deem advisable for the management, administration and regulations of the business and affairs of the Cooperative.

Accounting Systems and Reports

Section 8. The Board of Directors shall cause to be established and maintained a complete accounting system and shall cause to be made a full and complete audit of the accounts at least once a year for a twelve (12) month period (not necessarily the same period as the Cooperative's fiscal year) by a certified public accountant selected by the Board of Directors.

An accurate summary of such audit reports shall be submitted to the members at or prior to the succeeding annual meeting of the members.

Director Indemnification

Section 9. The corporation shall have the power and duty to indemnify any director, officer or employee, or former director, officer or employee of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director, officer or employee of another corporation in which it owns shares of a capital stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of any action, suit or proceeding in which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been such a director, officer, or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he or she shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty, and except that the corporation shall have the power to reimburse for the reasonable costs of settlement only if it shall be found by the Board of Directors that it was to the best interests of the corporation that such settlement be made and that such director, officer or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer, or employee may be entitled under any By-Law, agreement, vote of shareholders or otherwise.

Removal of Directors

Section 10. Any member may bring charges against a director by filing them in writing with the Secretary, together with a petition signed by twenty per centum (20%) of the members requesting the removal of the director in question. No petition may include more than one director. A director of the Cooperative may be removed only for a cause. Cause, as defined in these By-Laws, means malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance adversely affecting the corporate interests. Cause, and defined in these By-Laws, does not mean conduct or decision of a discretionary matter or good faith acts of a director exercising honest business judgment. All petitions presented pursuant to this By-Law shall contain the signature of a bona fide member of the Cooperative as of the date such petitions are filed with the Secretary. Such petitions shall be signed before a notary public by each member circulating such petition. The Secretary shall, upon receipt of the charges and petition against a director, transmit them within a reasonable time to an arbitrator chosen jointly by the member bringing the charges and the Secretary under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association on the questions of whether cause has been stated in the charges under the definition of cause within these By-Laws and on any other issue or matter concerning the recall. In the event that the arbitrator decides that the charges state cause as defined in these By-Laws, the removal shall be voted upon at the next regular meeting of the members (or special meeting of the members specifically called for that purpose) and any vacancy created by such removal may be filled by the members at such meeting. In the event that the arbitrator decides that cause has not been stated, then the removal shall not be presented to the membership at any regular or special meeting, and all expenses of the arbitration shall be borne by the member submitting the petition. The director against whom such charges have been brought shall be informed in writing of the charges thirty (30) days previous to the meeting and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel, or both, and to present evidence; and the member bringing the charges against the director shall have the same opportunity.

Director Liability

Section 11. Directors, and former directors, shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of any fiduciary duty except: breach of the duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members; an act or omission not in good faith or which involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or a transaction resulting in improper personal benefit to the director.

Former Director as Employee

Section 12. No person shall be eligible to become a Cooperative employee who served as a Director within three (3) years before the proposed hire date.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without notice other than this By-Law, immediately after, and at the same place as the annual meeting of the members. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall also be held monthly at such time and place as the Board of Directors may provide by resolution. Such regular monthly meeting may be held without notice other than such resolution fixing the time and place thereof. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held electronically if authorized by the Board of Directors. Notice of the time, place and purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given at least three (3) days previous thereto, by written notice, delivered personally or mailed, to each director at the director's last known address. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed, with postage prepaid thereon. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except in case a director shall attend a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting shall not have been lawfully called or convened.

Quorum

Section 4. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, provided, that if less than a majority of the directors is present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 3. In case of a lost, destroyed or mutilated certificate, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and such indemnity to the Cooperative as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

ARTICLE VIII

REVENUES AND RECEIPTS

Interest or Dividends on Capital Prohibited

Section 1. The Cooperative shall at all time be operated on a cooperative non-profit basis for the mutual benefit of its patrons (meaning member and non-member consumers). No interest or dividends shall be paid or payable by the Cooperative on any capital furnished by its patrons.

Patronage Capital in Connection with Furnishing Electric Energy

Section 2. In the furnishing of electric energy the Cooperative's operations shall be so conducted that all patrons will through their patronage furnish capital for the Cooperative. In order to induce patronage and to assure that the Cooperative will operate on a non-profit basis the Cooperative is obligated to account on a patronage basis to all its patrons for all amounts received and receivable from the furnishing of electric energy in excess of operating costs and expenses properly chargeable against the furnishing of electric energy. All such amounts in excess of operating costs and expense at the moment of receipt by the Cooperative are received with the understanding that they are furnished by the patrons as capital. The Cooperative is obligated to pay by credits to a capital account for each patron all such amounts in excess of operating costs and expenses. The books and records of the Cooperative shall be set up and kept in such a manner that at the end of each fiscal year the amount of capital, if any, so furnished by each patron is clearly reflected and credited in an appropriate record to the capital account of each patron, and the Cooperative shall within a reasonable time after the close of the fiscal year notify each patron of the amount of capital so credited to the patron's account. All such amounts credited to the capital account of any patron shall have the same status as though they had been paid to the patron in cash in pursuance of a legal obligation to do so and the patron had then furnished the Cooperative corresponding amounts for capital.

All other amounts received by the Cooperative from its operations in excess of costs and expenses shall, insofar as permitted by law, be (a) used to offset any losses incurred during the current or any prior fiscal year and (b) to the extent not needed for that purpose allocated to its patrons on a patronage basis and any amount so allocated shall be included as a part of the capital credited to the accounts of patrons, as herein provided.

The Cooperative shall have a security interest in each patron's capital credit account for the purpose of paying any indebtedness due the Cooperative. The Cooperative is entitled and authorized to withhold from any approved refund of capital credits, whether a general or special refund, such amounts as the patron owes the Cooperative and shall apply the amount withheld to the patron's obligation, and the excess, if any, shall be refunded. Patrons do not have the right to apply, or offset, capital credits that have not been approved for refund to any obligation they owe the Cooperative.

Retirement of Capital Credits

Section 3. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Cooperative, after all outstanding indebtedness of the Cooperative shall have been paid, outstanding capital credits shall be retired without priority on a pro rata basis before any payments are made on account of property rights of members.

If, at any time prior to dissolution or liquidation, the Board of Directors shall determine that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby, the capital then credited to patrons' accounts may be retired in full or in part. Any such retirement of capital shall be made by the Board of Directors determining the method basis, priority, and order of retirement, if any, for all amounts furnished and credited as capital. Because of the cost involved in issuing numerous small checks, except for the last year a patron is due a refund, capital credit refund checks will not be issued until the accumulated amount in the patrons' capital credit account exceeds ten dollars ($10.00).

If the Board of Directors shall take any action that changes the service area of the Cooperative, or if any governmental entity having such authority shall change the service area of the Cooperative, thereby terminating the Cooperative's authority to provide electric service to patrons in such area or areas, and if the Board of Directors shall first determine that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby, it may retire the capital then credited to the account or accounts so terminated in such manner as the Board of Directors at its sole discretion shall determine to be fair and equitable, including a reasonable discount for the accelerated retirement of the account.

Assignments of Capital Credits

Section 4. Capital credited to the account of each patron shall be assignable only on the books of the Cooperative pursuant to written instructions from the assignor and only to successors in interest or successors in occupancy in all or a part of such patron's premises served by the Cooperative unless the Board of Directors, acting under policies of general application, shall determine otherwise.

Retirement of Capital Credits on Death of Patron

Section 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of these By-Laws, the Board of Directors, at its discretion and any time after a patron's death or cessation of legal existence, may retire all or any portion of the capital so credited to the patron upon such terms and conditions as the board of directors, acting under policies of general application to situations of like kind, and such patrons' legal representative shall agree upon; provided, however, that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be thereby impaired.

Property Interest of Members

Section 6. Upon dissolution, after (a) all debts and liabilities of the Cooperative shall have been paid, and (b) all capital furnished through patronage shall have been retired as provided in these By-Laws, the remaining property and assets of the Cooperative shall be distributed among the patrons and former patrons in the proportion which the aggregate patronage of each bears to the total patronage of all patrons during the seven years next preceding the date of the filing of the certificate of dissolution, or, if the Cooperative shall not have been in existence for such period, during the period of its existence.

Unclaimed or Unrefundable Consumer Accounts

Section 7. In all cases where a member or patron fails to claim any deposits, stocks, dividends, capital credits, patronage refunds, contributed capital, book equities or any other property or funds held for him or her by the association, after the same have been declared payable to him or her, the association may recover and use such property or funds, if state law permits, for educational or charitable purposes; provided that the association has first given notice by U.S. mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the member or patron at his or her last known address as shown by the records of the association, and such notice has been returned by United States mail to the association; and provided further, that such property or funds cannot be so used until after a period of six (6) years from the date of mailing such notice, and if the member or patron does not claim such property or funds with such six (6) year period, any claim thereto shall be extinguished and forever barred.

ARTICLE IX

Waiver of Notice

Any member or director may waive, in writing, any notice of meetings required to be given by these By-Laws as hereinbefore set forth.

ARTICLE X

Disposition of Property

The Cooperative may not sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of or encumber any of its property other than:

(1) Property which in the judgment of the Board of Directors neither is nor will be necessary or useful in operating and maintaining the Cooperative's system and facilities; provided, however, that all sales of such property shall not, in any one year, exceed in value ten percent (10%) of the value of all of the property of the Cooperative.

(2) Services of all kinds, including electric energy; and

(3) Personal property acquired for resale; unless such sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition or encumbrance is authorized at a meeting of the members by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members, and the notice of such proposed sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition or encumbrance shall have been contained in the notice of the meeting; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Board of Directors, without authorization by the members, shall have full power and authority to borrow money from the United States of America, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or any other organization or institution, provided that said transaction has first been approved by the United States of America, acting through the Administrator of the Rural Utility Service, and in connection with such borrowing to authorize the making and issuance of bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness and to secure the payment thereof, to authorize the execution and delivery of a mortgage or mortgages, or a deed or deeds of trust upon, or the pledging or encumbering of any or all of the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises and permits of the Cooperative, whether acquired or to be acquired, and wherever situated, as well as the revenues and income therefrom, all upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors shall determine.

ARTICLE XI

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Cooperative shall begin on the first day of January of each year and end on the thirty-first day of December of the same year.

ARTICLE XII

Membership in Other Organizations

The Cooperative may become a member of any other organization by first having a motion for membership presented at a regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors and the motion thereupon receiving the affirmative vote of eight (8) of the eleven (11) directors. The Cooperative may also become a member of any other organization by affirmative vote of the members at a meeting called as provided by these By-Laws, and notices of said meeting shall specify that action is to be taken upon such proposed membership as an item of business. The Cooperative may withdraw from membership in any other organization in the same manner and by the same procedures as it may use in becoming a member of any other organization.

ARTICLE XIII

Seal

The corporate seal of said Cooperative shall be in the form of a circle and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Cooperative and the words "Corporate Seal" State of Colorado.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendments to By-Laws

These By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present, provided notice is given to the proposed alteration, amendment or repeal by publishing the notice thirty (30) days prior to the meeting in the Colorado Rural Electric Association magazine, if one exists, or, in a newspaper printed in the county where the principal office of the Cooperative is located, and if there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper printed in an adjoining county, and further provided that the alteration, amendment or repeal is approved by a two-thirds vote of the directors present at the meeting.
